OSWEGO, N.Y. -- Nazareth College scored the game's first 13 goals Wednesday and cruised to its 11th straight men's lacrosse victory, 18-6, over Oswego.

Senior attackman Jeff Keys (Fairport, NY) collected all four of his points (three goals and one assist) in the opening quarter as the Golden Flyers (11-0, ranked third nationally in Division III) built a 6-0 advantage. Nazareth scored seven more times in the second quarter with sophomore attackman Chad Kuczek (Auburn, NY) scoring all three of his goals and junior Jim Cianforcca (Syracuse, NY) picking up two goals and two assists.

Sophomore attackman Avery Burke contributed three goals and two assists and Eric Goodberlet and Josh Lewis each added a pair of goals.

Nazareth closes out its regular-season schedule Saturday at Adelphi at 1 p.m. (WHTK-AM 1280).
