ROCHESTER, N.Y. – Freshman Ellen Fanning (Geneva, NY) scored four goals Sunday – all in the second half -- as Nazareth College rallied for a 12-9 victory over Ohio Wesleyan in women's lacrosse.

Nazareth (11-3) trailed 5-3 at halftime, and by as many as three goals on two occasions in the second half, before rallying. Fanning's third goal of the game, off a pass from Sarah Burns (Cicero, NY) at 18:50 of the second half, tied the score at 9-9. Fanning then scored the game-winner unassisted at 20:42. Burns and Jackie Lombard (Henrietta, NY) added goals in the closing minutes to close out the scoring for the Golden Flyers.

Nazareth took a 2-0 lead on goals by Sue Hollister (West Genesee/Syracuse) and Lombard. Ohio Wesleyan (8-7), however, rallied to take a 5-3 lead at halftime as junior Tanya Tanhehco (Williamsville, NY) scored twice.

In addition to Fanning's four goals, Nazareth got two goals each from Hollister, Lombard, and freshman Krista Dougherty (Geneva, NY). Burns contributed one goal and three assists.

Tanhehco and Sarah Murray (Woodstock, VT) each scored twice for the Battling Bishops. Senior Jenny Feldman (Rockville, MD) added one goal and one assist.
