MIDDLEBURY ADVANCES TO SEMIFINALS FOR SEVENTH STRAIGHT YEAR

MIDDLEBURY, Vt. - Middlebury went on a 9-0 second half run on its way to a 16-7 win over Nazareth in the NCAA Quarterfinals. The Panthers advance to take on Williams in the semifinals on Saturday at 2:00 at the College of New Jersey. The host school will meet Salisbury State in the other semifinal at 11:30 a.m.

Middlebury jumped out to a 3-1 lead with a pair of goals from Betsy Wheeler in the first 5:33 of the game. Maya Lambiase scored a pair of goals in a 2:33 span to tie the game at three with 19:18 left. The teams then exchanged goals to make it a 4-4 game at the half. Wheeler gave the Panthers a 5-4 lead early in the second half as she drove half of the field before beating Nazareth goalkeeper Teryn Wineburg.

Jessa Martin gave Middlebury a two-goal lead as she converted a pass from Kristin Hanley before Allison Roberts scored to make it a 6-5 Middlebury lead with 21:30 left to play.

The Panthers would then go on a 9-0 run in a 17:32 span to take a 15-5 lead with 4:07 left to play. Nazareth scored two of the last three goals to make the final score 16-7. Kate Robertson made seven saves for Middlebury, while Wineburg stopped 15 shots for Nazareth.
