ROCHESTER, N.Y. – Senior Sarah Burns scored four goals and added six assists and became Nazareth's all-time goal-scoring leader Saturday as the Golden Flyers outscored the University 18-11 in women's lacrosse.

The victory, at UR's Fauver Stadium, was the third straight for the Golden Flyers, who improved to 3-1 overall. Rochester is 3-3.

After falling behind 2-1 early in the game, Nazareth went on to score eight of the next 10 goals to build a commanding 9-4 advantage. UR closed to within 9-6 early in the second half, but the Golden Flyers then scored six of the next seven goals to pull away.

Burns, Nazareth's all-time point producer, now has 241 career points on 124 goals and 117 assists. Junior Sue Hollister contributed five goals and one assist and Maya Lambiase and Lorra Podsiadlo each scored three goals.
