GENEVA, N.Y. -- Nazareth, ranked 19th nationally in Division III, lost a women's lacrosse showdown to William Smith Tuesday, 13-9. The Golden Flyers (11-2) had won 11 in a row, but could not overcome seven goals by Herons' sophomore Gwen Parker.

For Nazareth Lorra Podsiadlo, Allison Roberts and Maya Lambiase scored in the first half -- all on free position shots -- but the Golden Flyers trailed 6-3. In the second half, Nazareth closed to within 10-9 on a goal by Lambiase off an assist by Podsiadlo with 7:04 left. William Smith, however, finished with three unanswered goals to clinch the victory.

Podsiadlo had three goals and one assist for the Golden Flyers and sophomore goalie Teryn Wineburg made 13 saves.
